Non-Discrimination Statement

Equal Opportunity and Non-Discrimination at Tufts University

Tufts is enriched by the many experiences and perspectives each individual member brings to our community. Tufts does not discriminate in admissions, employment or in any of its educational programs or activities and prohibits discrimination and harassment against any student, employee, job applicants, applicants for admission, or third parties<sup>1</sup> on the basis of protected categories. Those protected categories include race (including traits historically associated with race, including, but not limited to hair texture, hair type, hair length and protective hairstyles<sup>2</sup>), color, national or ethnic origin, ancestry, shared ancestry, age, religion, disability (including those with a record of a disability), sex and/or gender, gender identity and/or expression (including a transgender identity as defined by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts), sexual orientation, military or veteran status, pregnancy, lactation,<sup>3</sup> genetic information, the intersection of these identities or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal, state or local law.<sup>4</sup> Retaliation is also strictly prohibited. Tufts is an equal opportunity employer. See the full Tufts Non-Discrimination Policy.

Tufts also prohibits all types of discrimination and/or harassment based on sex/gender-based protected categories. Tufts uses the umbrella term “sexual misconduct” to reflect sex/gender-based harassment and/or discrimination which includes sexual harassment, a hostile environment, quid pro quo sexual harassment and other sexual misconduct including acts of sexual violence such as rape, sexual assault, stalking, sexual exploitation, domestic violence, interpersonal/dating/relationship/intimate partner violence and other conduct which may constitute sexual misconduct under our policies such as a violation of the Tufts University Relationships with Students Policy. More detailed Tufts policies and procedures on this topic may be found on the OEO website OEO Policies and Procedures page.
